Story of Two Boys; It's all about choices

The main purpose of our Golf Tournament is to support the Fall Boys Retreat. Many of these boys come from the inner-city and come to the camp by involvement in the Positive Black Males Association of Houston (PBMAH).

This weekend allows a boy to be a boy: to feel safe, to feel cared for, to fish, to canoe, to play games, to learn about nature and to receive three meal a day. They interact with men with good Christian values. They get out of their neighborhood and see a world that their leaders talk about. The boys experience the opportunity to have a dream. The leaders say the way out is to get involved, stay clean, and get an education.

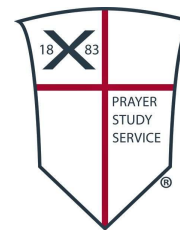

Both young men lived in Houston's third ward. Both were influenced by the PBMAH. Both attended the Fall Boy's Retreat.

One boy made a bad choice. He represents the minority of those who attend the Fall Boys Retreat. Rather than get involved in education and a future, he listened to the gangs and decided he could do it on his own. He chose the gangs over PBMAH. And now he's facing a life in prison. And when he was in trouble, where did he turn to for help? The very people he rejected, PBMAH.

The second boy made a different choice. He represents the majority of those who attend the Fall Boys Retreat. He got involved with PBMAH and his church. He stayed clean, got an education, and is now a Harvard graduate. This young man made a good choice and he's encouraging others back in his old neighborhood to make good choices.

Your sponsorship can help other boys make a good choice. Help sponsor the Fall Boys Retreat by supporting the Golf Tournament.
